a be quite interesting. At the People's Theatre an old favorite will be the star that will twinkle tonight and during the coming week. Miss Jane Coombs will present ner adaptation of Charles Dickens's famous "Bleak House." In which she won fame and money some years ago. She will play the part of Lady Dedlock, a role which many stars have tried to interpret. The story of "Bleak House" certainly lends itself to dramatization, and Miss Coombs's printing looks sensational enough to please the most inveterate melodrama lover. She will have a good company.

There is to be a sensational symmastic.

Ben Dunham, who used to be associated novelty at Proctor's Theatre next week. Ben Dunham, who used to be associated with Marlo, is to appear with the horizontal bar team of Dashaway and Moulton. The living pictures will again be seen, and a new realistic group of five figures, entitled "The Arts," will be seen, and a new realistic group of five figures, entitled "The Arts," will be added to them. Among the vaudevillers will be the Four Prophets, the Gleasons, Rexo and Reno, as "The Swell and the Tramp," Prof. Carlisie's dog circus, Rowland and Keene, Coogan and Mest, Bianche Fernandez and Prof. Stevenson.

Lennard's bullet-proof coat has made a great hit at the Imperial Music Hall and will remair, there another week. He magnanimously promises to give $500 to any one producing a shield to stand the test to which his shield is nightly subjected. Mr. Kraus also announces for the coming week the National Trio, Smith and Rowland, the Irish humorists. Tatall, the flying demon; Leonora, the contortionist; Yuna, Louise Montrose, of the "Black Crook" company; Snow and Strong, Hadjeheriff and Zara and some new living pictures.

"The Mikado" is doing remarkably well at the Fifth Avenue Theatre. Its success has astonished the old stagers, who prophesied misfortune when it was subjected to the support. She with another woman, he was and disges that he has been living with another woman, he says the woman is a pretty silhough not powerful voice, does good work as Yum-Yum, and the return of Miss Lillian Swain to the cast during the past week was a very welcome event.
